- (2) The Secretary must ensure that, no later than on 1 December 2015, a criminal record check is conducted or obtained in relation to each of its existing departmental workers.

Schedule 1 Disability service standards

(Clause 8)

The disability service standards are as follows—

Rights

Each person with disability receives a service that promotes and respects the person's legal and human rights and enables them to exercise choice like every one else in the community.

Participation and inclusion

Each person with disability is encouraged and supported to contribute to social and civic life in the person's communities in the way the person chooses.

Individual outcomes

Each person with disability is supported to exercise choice and control over the design and delivery of support and services to the person.

Feedback and complaints

When a person with disability wants to make a complaint to a provider of a service, the provider of the service will make sure the person's views are respected, that the person is informed as the complaint is dealt with, and that the person has the opportunity to be involved in the resolution process.

Service access

Each person with disability is assisted to access the supports and services the person needs to live the life the person chooses.

Service management

Providers of services to persons with disability are well managed and have strong and effective governance to deliver positive outcomes for the persons they support.
