7 Registration of beekeepers

- (1) A person may apply to the Director-General for registration as a beekeeper.
- (2) An application for registration as a beekeeper must:
  - (a) be in the form approved by the Director-General, and
  - (b) be accompanied by the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The Director-General may refuse an application for registration as a beekeeper only on the grounds prescribed by the regulations.

- (4) The Director-General must, as soon as practicable after determining an application, by notice in writing served on the applicant:
  - (a) notify the applicant of the fact, and
  - (b) if the application has been granted, issue the applicant a registration number, and
  - (c) if the application has been refused, notify the applicant of the reason for the refusal.
- (5) The Director-General may, by notice in writing served on a registered beekeeper, change the beekeeper's registration number.
- (6) The regulations may prescribe different classes of registration and may prescribe different fees in respect of different classes of registration.

8 Conditions of registration

- (1) The registration of a person as a beekeeper is subject to the conditions (if any) prescribed by the regulations and such other conditions as may be imposed by the Director-General from time to time.
- (2) The conditions imposed on the registration of beekeepers may apply generally, on a specified class of beekeepers or on an individual.
- (3) The Director-General may at any time, by notice in writing served on a registered beekeeper, impose conditions or revoke or vary any conditions imposed by the Director-General on the beekeeper's registration.
- (4) A registered beekeeper must not contravene a condition of the beekeeper's registration.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.

9 Term of registration

- (1) A person's registration as a beekeeper remains in force for the period for which it was granted, unless it is earlier surrendered or cancelled under this Act.
- (2) A person's registration as a beekeeper may be granted for a period not exceeding 2 years.

10 Suspension of registration

- (1) The Director-General may suspend a person's registration as a beekeeper by notice in writing served on the person.

- (2) The Director-General may suspend the registration of a beekeeper only if the Director-General is authorised by the regulations to do so.
- (3) If a person's registration as a beekeeper is suspended, the person must not:
  - (a) sell or attempt to sell apiary products acquired in the course of carrying on the business of a beekeeper, or
  - (b) acquire or attempt to acquire more bees.Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.
- (4) Notice of the suspension of a person's registration as a beekeeper must specify the date on which the suspension takes effect (being a date after the notice is served) and the period of suspension.
- (5) The suspension of a person's registration as a beekeeper does not affect the term of the person's registration.

11 Cancellation and expiry of registration

- (1) A person ceases to be registered as a beekeeper if:
  - (a) the Director-General cancels a beekeeper's registration by notice in writing served on the person, or
  - (b) the person's term of registration expires, or
  - (c) the person notifies the Director-General, in writing, that he or she is surrendering his or her registration.
- (2) The Director-General may cancel the registration of a beekeeper only if the Director-General is authorised by the regulations to do so.
- (3) Notice of the cancellation of a person's registration as a beekeeper must specify the date on which the cancellation takes effect (being a date after the notice is served).

12 Renewal of beekeeper's registration

- (1) A registered beekeeper may, before the expiry of the beekeeper's term of registration, apply to the Director-General for the renewal of the beekeeper's registration.
- (2) An application for the renewal of a beekeeper's registration must:
  - (a) be in the form approved by the Director-General, and
  - (b) be accompanied by the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations.

- (3) The regulations may prescribe different fees in respect of the renewal of different classes of registration.
- (4) The Director-General may refuse an application for the renewal of a beekeeper's registration only on the grounds prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) The Director-General must, as soon as practicable after determining an application, by notice in writing served on the applicant:
  - (a) notify the applicant of the fact, and
  - (b) if the application has been refused, notify the applicant of the reason for the refusal.
- (6) If a beekeeper's term of registration (in respect of which an application has been made under this section) would expire before the Director-General determines the application, the registration does not expire until the date on which the application is determined.
- (7) Section 9 applies to the renewal of a beekeeper's registration in the same way as it applies to the granting of registration as a beekeeper and, for that purpose, the term of the renewal of a beekeeper's registration commences on the date on which the beekeeper's registration would, but for this section, have expired.

13 Director-General to keep register of beekeepers

- (1) The Director-General is to maintain a register of beekeepers, in such form as the Director-General considers appropriate.
- (2) The register is to contain:
  - (a) the information required by the regulations to be included in the register, and
  - (b) such other information as the Director-General considers, having regard to the purposes of the register, should be kept in the register.
- (3) The purposes for which the register is to be used and maintained under this section include the following:
  - (a) to facilitate and assist the operation of this Act and the Animal Diseases and Animal Pests (Emergency Outbreaks) Act 1991,
  - (b) to protect public health and safety,
  - (c) to assist in controlling disease and residues in bees and apiary products,
  - (d) to assist in enabling the disease and residue risk or status of bees, beehives, appliances and apiary products to be ascertained,

- (e) to facilitate the determination of ownership of bees, beehives, appliances and apiary products,
  - (f) to assist in tracing the movement of bees, beehives, appliances and apiary products,
  - (g) to assist in the investigation of the theft of bees, beehives, appliances and apiary products,
  - (h) to facilitate the dissemination of information in relation to the production and marketing of bees and apiary products,
  - (i) to assist with the management of land on which apiaries are located,
  - (j) any other purpose prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) The Director-General must, on the request of an authorised person, at any time allow an authorised person to have access to the information recorded in the register.
- (5) The Director-General may, subject to section 57 of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, allow any other person, on payment of the fee (if any) prescribed by the regulations, to have access at any reasonable time to the information recorded in the register.
- (6) A person who has access to the information recorded in the register is entitled to make notes or obtain a copy of that information.
- (7) A copy of an entry in the register, purporting to be certified by the Director-General as a true copy of the entry, is admissible in evidence in any proceedings under this Act and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof of its contents.
- (8) In this section, authorised person means:
- (a) an inspector, or
  - (b) a police officer, or
  - (c) an employee of a local council, or
  - (d) any other person, or a member of a class of persons, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition.
