.....(full name of prisoner) was sentenced on .....(date) at .....(Court) in New South Wales to ..... imprisonment (aggregate term) for the offence(s) of .....(short description).

On .....(date), the Local Court at ..... in New South Wales, on an application for the issue of an order for the transfer of the prisoner to the State/Territory of ....., a participating State for the purposes of the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982, to be dealt with according to law, made the following order:

Form 9 Order of transfer to return person to participating State after being dealt with according to law

(Clause 19)

TO the governor of the correctional centre at ..... in New South Wales

AND TO the escort(s) for the purposes of executing this order

.....(full name of prisoner) was sentenced on .....(date) at .....(Court) in the State/Territory of ....., a participating State for the purposes of the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982, to ..... imprisonment (aggregate term) for the offence(s) of .....(short description).

The prisoner was transferred to New South Wales from the abovenamed participating State pursuant to an order of transfer issued under a provision of the interstate law of that participating State for the purpose of being dealt with according to law.

So far as I, the Minister for Corrective Services, am aware, every complaint or information alleging any offence by the prisoner against the law of New South Wales or the Commonwealth has been finally dealt with according to law and as a result the prisoner:

- did not become liable to serve any sentence of imprisonment in New South Wales,
- was sentenced on .....(date) at .....(Court) in New South Wales to ..... imprisonment (aggregate term) for the offence(s) of .....(short description),

(delete whichever is inapplicable)

and the term of imprisonment remaining to be served in New South Wales is shorter than the period of imprisonment remaining to be served by the prisoner under any translated sentence of imprisonment imposed for any other offence against a law of the Commonwealth or a Territory.

I, the Minister for Corrective Services, pursuant to the provisions of section 20 of the Act, issue this order for the transfer of the prisoner to the participating State to serve the period of imprisonment remaining to be served by the prisoner in that State.

I order you:

- (a) the governor of the abovenamed correctional centre in New South Wales, to deliver the prisoner, together with this order into the custody of the abovenamed escort(s),
- (b) the abovenamed escort(s), to take and safely keep custody of the prisoner for the purpose of conveying the prisoner from New South Wales to the participating State and there delivering the prisoner, together with this order, into the custody of the person in charge of the prison at ..... in the participating State, and for your so doing, this order is sufficient authority.

Form 10 Order of imprisonment following agreement of Ministers that person should serve imprisonment in New South Wales

(Clause 22)

TO the governor of the correctional centre at ..... in New South Wales

.....(full name of prisoner) was sentenced on .....(date) at .....(Court) in the State/Territory of ....., a participating State for the purposes of the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982, to ..... imprisonment (aggregate term) for the offence(s) of .....(short description).

The prisoner was transferred to New South Wales pursuant to the Act for the purpose of being dealt with according to law.

The prisoner was sentenced on .....(date) at .....(Court) in New South Wales to ..... imprisonment (aggregate term) for the offence(s) of .....(short description).

Because of the shorter sentence of imprisonment imposed in New South Wales, the prisoner is liable to be transferred back to the participating State pursuant to the provisions of Part 4 of the Act to serve the longer sentence of imprisonment.

The prisoner has made a written request to the Minister for Corrective Services to serve the longer sentence of imprisonment in New South Wales.

The corresponding Minister of the participating State and I, the Minister for Corrective Services, have agreed in writing that it is in the interests of the welfare of the prisoner that the prisoner should serve the longer sentence of imprisonment in New South Wales.

I order you, the governor of the abovenamed correctional centre, to receive the prisoner into your custody for the purpose of serving the longer sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of the Act, and for your so doing this order is sufficient authority.

TO the governor of the correctional centre at ..... in New South Wales

AND TO the escort(s) for the purposes of the Prisoners (Interstate Transfer) Act 1982

.....(full name of prisoner), a person subject to an order of transfer issued under an interstate law of the State/Territory of ....., a participating State for the purposes of the Act, being a person in lawful custody pursuant to the provisions of section 31 of the Act for transit through New South Wales was, before a justice at ..... on .....(date), proved to have:

- escaped from such lawful custody,
- attempted to escape from such lawful custody.

(delete whichever is inapplicable)

Despite the terms of the order of transfer issued in the abovenamed participating State, it was ordered by that justice that the prisoner be returned to the participating State and, for that purpose, it was also ordered that the prisoner be delivered to an escort.

I order you:

- the abovenamed senior police officer and all other police officers in New South Wales, and the governor of the abovenamed correctional centre, as the case may be, to receive the prisoner and detain the prisoner in your custody until the prisoner is delivered into the custody of the escort(s) to whom this warrant is directed, together with this warrant, for the purpose of being returned to the participating State, or until the expiration of a period of 7 days from the date of this warrant, whichever first occurs,
- the abovenamed escort(s), to take and safely keep custody of the prisoner for the purpose of conveying the prisoner from New South Wales to the participating State, and for your so doing, this warrant is sufficient authority.

In the event that the prisoner is not delivered into the custody of an escort to whom this warrant is directed within a period of 7 days from the date of this warrant, the warrant has no further effect and the prisoner is to be discharged.
