Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Regulation 2003

New South Wales

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Regulation 2003.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 28 February 2003.

3 Definition

In this Regulation:

the Act means the Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Act 2002.

Part 2

4 (Repealed)

Part 3 Warrant enforcing order for possession

5 Warrant enforcing order for possession of premises

For the purposes of section 30 (1) of the Act, the prescribed form of warrant authorising a sheriff's officer to enter premises to enforce an order for possession is that set out in Schedule 2.

Part 4 Uncollected goods

6 Meaning of "occupant"

In this Part, occupant includes a former occupant.

7 Uncollected goods

(1) Goods (including any relocatable home or other moveable dwelling owned by an occupant) that have been left on site by the occupant after the occupant vacates the site become uncollected goods for the purposes of this Part:

- (a) when the occupant vacates the site, or
- (b) if the occupant vacates the site before the occupation agreement is terminated—when the agreement is terminated.

- (2) Uncollected goods may be disposed of as provided by this Part, but only if the requirements of this Part are complied with.

8 Options available to park owner when goods not collected

- (1) Uncollected goods that have not been removed from the site by the occupant within 2 working days after they become uncollected goods are to be dealt with as provided by this clause.
- (2) The goods are to be stored in a safe place by the park owner unless the goods are disposed of as authorised by this clause.
- (3) If the goods are perishable foodstuffs, the park owner may remove and destroy or otherwise dispose of the goods.
- (4) If the park owner is reasonably of the opinion that it would cost more to remove, store and sell the goods (other than any moveable dwelling) than those goods are worth, the park owner may remove and destroy or otherwise dispose of the goods (other than any moveable dwelling).
- (5) If the goods left on the site include a moveable dwelling, the park owner may store any other goods in the moveable dwelling and may store the moveable dwelling on the site.
- (6) In this clause:

working day means any day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

9 Notice to occupant that goods are in storage

- (1) When goods are stored by the park owner, the park owner must:
 - (a) give the occupant written notice that the goods have been stored, and
 - (b) publish a notice that the goods have been stored in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State.

The notices must be given and published within 7 days after the goods are stored.

- (2) The notice referred to in subclause (1) (a) may (in addition to any other way in which it may be given) be given to the occupant by being sent by post to the occupant at the last forwarding address known to the park owner.

- (3) The notice referred to in subclause (1) (a) may, instead of being given to the occupant, be given to a representative nominated by the occupant before the occupant vacated the site.
- (4) The notice referred to in subclause (1) (a) must contain the following:
 - (a) the park owner's name and address, or an address at which the goods can be claimed,
 - (b) the occupant's name,
 - (c) the address of the site (including the site number, where appropriate),
 - (d) a brief description of the goods and, if the goods are or include a moveable dwelling, a description of the moveable dwelling,
 - (e) a statement that, on or after a specified date the goods (other than any moveable dwelling) will be sold by public auction unless they are first claimed, and any reasonable costs of removal, storage, notice of storage and sale (including the cost of advertising the sale) are paid,
 - (f) if the goods are or include a moveable dwelling, a statement that the park owner intends to apply to the Tribunal for an order authorising the removal, destruction, disposal or sale of the moveable dwelling, unless the dwelling is first claimed, and any reasonable costs of removal, storage, notice of storage, application to the Tribunal and sale (including the cost of advertising the sale) are paid,
 - (g) a statement that the park owner will retain out of the proceeds of any sale of the goods any reasonable costs of removal, storage, notice of storage, application to the Tribunal and sale (including the cost of advertising the sale),
 - (h) a statement that the occupant is entitled to the balance of the proceeds of any sale of the goods.
- (5) The notice referred to:
 - (a) in subclause (1) (a) is to be in the form set out in Schedule 3, and
 - (b) in subclause (1) (b) is to be in the form set out in Schedule 4.

10 Order of Tribunal required for disposal of uncollected moveable dwelling

- (1) As soon as practicable after uncollected goods, being a moveable dwelling, have been stored by the park owner in accordance with this Part for 30 days, the park owner is to apply to the Tribunal for an order under section 34 of the Act authorising the removal, destruction, disposal or sale of the moveable dwelling.

- (2) The park owner may not dispose of a moveable dwelling unless the Tribunal has made such an order.
- (3) The park owner is to dispose of or otherwise deal with the moveable dwelling in the manner authorised by the Tribunal as soon as practicable after the Tribunal makes the order.
- (4) The park owner is required to account to the occupant for the balance of the proceeds of the sale (if any) of the moveable dwelling after deduction of the reasonable costs of removal, storage, notice of storage, application to the Tribunal and sale of the dwelling (including the cost of advertising the sale).
- (5) If the park owner has not located the occupant, after making reasonable attempts to do so, for the purpose of accounting to the occupant for the balance of the proceeds of any sale, the balance of the proceeds is to be dealt with as if it were unclaimed money under the Unclaimed Money Act 1995.
- (6) Nothing in this Part prevents a park owner from making an application to the Tribunal under section 34 of the Act without first taking the steps set out in this Part.

11 Uncollected goods (other than moveable dwelling) may be auctioned

- (1) As soon as practicable after uncollected goods (other than a moveable dwelling) have been stored by the park owner in accordance with this Part for 30 days, the park owner is to cause them to be sold by public auction.
- (2) The park owner is required to account to the occupant for the balance of the proceeds of the sale of the goods after deduction of the reasonable costs of removal, storage, notice of storage and sale of the goods, including the cost of advertising the sale.
- (3) If the park owner has not located the occupant, after making reasonable attempts to do so, for the purpose of accounting to the occupant for the balance of the proceeds of any sale, the balance of the proceeds is to be dealt with as if it were unclaimed money under the Unclaimed Money Act 1995.

12 Claiming uncollected goods

- (1) A person who is entitled to possession of goods left on site may claim the goods at any time before they are destroyed, sold or otherwise disposed of under this Part.
- (2) The park owner must deliver up the goods to a person who claims them if the park owner is satisfied that the person is entitled to claim them.
- (3) The park owner is entitled to require payment of the park owner's costs and expenses actually incurred in the removal and storage of goods, in the notification of storage and in advertising the sale of the goods (not exceeding a reasonable amount for those costs and expenses), before delivering goods to a person under this clause.

- (4) If a claim is for some but not all of the goods, and the remaining goods are worth enough to cover the reasonable costs of removal, storage and notice of storage of all of the goods and advertising the sale, the park owner must deliver up the claimed goods to the claimant without requiring payment of the park owner's reasonable costs of removal, storage, notice of storage and advertising of the sale of the claimed goods.

Schedule 1 (Repealed)

Schedule 2 Warrant enforcing order for possession of premises

(Clause 5)

Holiday Parks (Long-term Casual Occupation) Act 2002

To all sheriff's officers:

Why is this warrant being issued?

On, the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal sitting at made the following orders (delete whichever orders were not made):

an order terminating the occupation agreement between and an order for possession of the site at in New South Wales

an order that the operation of the order for possession be suspended for a period of days from the date of the order an order that the operation of the order for possession be terminated 14 days after the date of issue of this warrant.

An application was made by the person in whose favour the order was made for the enforcement of the order for possession of the site.

I am satisfied that the order has not been complied with, or that a condition of suspension of the order has not been complied with.

What does this warrant authorise?
