The Consumer Credit Code set out in the Appendix to the Consumer Credit (Queensland)

 - (a) decreasing the person's rights, or
 - (b) imposing liabilities on the person.

7 Interpretation of expressions in the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code and the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Regulations

- (1) In the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code and the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Regulations:

Legislature of this jurisdiction means the Legislature of New South Wales.

the Code or this Code means the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code.

- (2) The Acts Interpretation Act 1954, and other Acts, of Queensland do not apply to:

8 Conferral of judicial functions

- (1) The jurisdiction that is expressed to be exercisable by “the Court” under the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code and the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Regulations is exercisable by the following:

- (2) The jurisdiction conferred on a court by this section (other than the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal) is subject to the court’s general jurisdictional limits (so far as they relate to the amounts, or the value of property, with which the court may deal), but is not subject to the court’s other jurisdictional limits.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the transfer of proceedings between the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal and other courts or between other courts.
- (4) (Repealed)

9 Conferral of administrative functions

Part 4 Miscellaneous

10 Civil penalties payable to financial counselling trust fund

The financial counselling trust fund established in accordance with the regulations under the Credit Act 1984 is the fund into which are to be paid amounts of civil penalty payable under section 106 of the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code.

10A (Repealed)

10B Disclosure of cost of credit as annual percentage rate

- (1) (Repealed)
- (2) For the purposes of the application of section 15 (C) of the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code, and for the avoidance of doubt, the credit contract document must state an annual percentage rate calculated on the basis of charges under the contract that are in the nature of interest charges (whether or not they are expressed to be interest charges).

- (3) For the purposes of section 15 (E) of the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code, the total amount of interest charges includes any amount that is in the nature of an interest charge (whether or not it is expressed to be an interest charge).
- (4) For the purposes of section 14 of the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code, the pre-contractual statement must also set out the matters referred to in subsections (2) and (3).
- (5) The requirements of this section are in addition to any other requirements of section 14 or 15 of the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code.
- (6) The provisions of this section are repealed on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation published on the NSW legislation website.

11 Maximum annual percentage rate

- (1) The regulations may prescribe a maximum annual percentage rate for a credit contract or class of credit contracts to which the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code applies.
- (2) The regulations may require interest charges and all credit fees and charges under a credit contract or class of credit contracts to be included for the purpose of calculating the maximum annual percentage rate under the credit contract for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (3) Division 2 of Part 2 of the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code applies in relation to such a maximum annual percentage rate as if that rate had been prescribed by that Code.

Note—

The effect of subsection (3) is that a contract is void to the extent it imposes a monetary liability prohibited under subsection (1) and that any amount paid under the contract may be recovered. In addition the credit provider is guilty of an offence for entering into such a contract.

- (4) Nothing in this section affects the powers of the Court under Division 3 of Part 4 of the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code in relation to a contract that is not, by reason of this section, void.

Note—

Division 3 of Part 4 of the Code allows (among other things) the Court to re-open unjust transactions.

11A Persons who may take proceedings

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code or the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Regulations may be taken and prosecuted only by a person acting with the authority of:

(a) the Minister, or

(b) a prescribed officer.

(2) An authority to prosecute purporting to have been signed by the Minister or a prescribed officer is evidence of that authority without proof of the signature of the Minister or the prescribed officer.

(3) In proceedings for an offence against the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code or the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Regulations, the informant may conduct his or her case personally, or by a legal practitioner, or by an agent authorised by the informant in writing.

12 Proceedings for offences against the Code or regulations

Proceedings for offences against the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code or the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Regulations (that are punishable summarily) are to be dealt with by the Local Court.

This Act binds the Crown in right of New South Wales and, in so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

14 Special savings and transitional regulations for New South Wales

(2) If such a regulation so provides, it has effect despite any provision of this Act, including the Consumer Credit (New South Wales) Code.

(3) A provision of a regulation made under this section may, if the regulation so provides, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or from a later date.

(4) To the extent to which a provision takes effect from a date earlier than the date of the regulation's publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate to the disadvantage of a person (other than the State or a State authority) by:

(a) decreasing the person's rights, or

(b) imposing liabilities on the person.
