(Section 3)

[1] Long title

Omit "widows and widowers". Insert instead "surviving spouses".

[2] Section 2 Definitions

Insert in alphabetical order in section 2 (1):

de facto partner of a person means a person who is in a de facto relationship within the meaning of the Property (Relationships) Act 1984 with the other person.

spouse of a person includes a de facto partner.

surviving spouse of a judge, retired judge, former judge or former acting judge who has died (the deceased person) means a person who was the spouse of the deceased person at the time of the death of the deceased person.

[3] Section 6 Pension for surviving spouse of judge or retired judge

Omit "widow or widower" wherever occurring in section 6 (1).

Insert instead "surviving spouse".

[4] Section 6 (1) (a) and (b)

Omit "widow's or widower's" wherever occurring. Insert instead "spouse's".

[5] Section 6 (1A)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

(1A) If a retired judge dies on or after 29 November 2002 leaving a surviving spouse who became the spouse of the retired judge after the judge retired, and the surviving spouse is an eligible spouse, the surviving spouse is entitled, during the period commencing on the day after the retired judge's death and ending on the spouse's death:

- (a) if the retired judge and surviving spouse had been married or living in the relationship for 3 years or more immediately before the death—to a pension at an annual rate that, at any time during that period, is a percentage, calculated as provided by subsection (4), of the notional judicial salary of the retired judge at that time, or
- (b) if the retired judge and surviving spouse had been married or living in the relationship for less than 3 years immediately before the death—to a pension as referred to in paragraph (a), but reduced on a pro rata basis according to the proportion that the period of the marriage or relationship bears to 3 years.

[6] Section 6 (1B)

Omit the definition of eligible widow or widower. Insert instead:

eligible spouse of a retired judge means a person who has or had in his or her marriage or relationship with the retired judge a child, being:

- (a) a child of the spouse and the retired judge who was, in the opinion of the Minister, wholly or substantially dependent on the retired judge at any time during the marriage or relationship, or
- (b) a child of the retired judge who was conceived before and born alive after the death of the retired judge.

[7] Section 6 (2), (4) and (5)

Omit "the widow or widower of" wherever occurring.

[8] Section 7A Pension in respect of children on death of judge or retired judge

Omit "widow or widower" wherever occurring in section 7A (1).

Insert instead "surviving spouse".

[9] Section 7A (1)

Insert "or subsequent relationship" after "remarriage".

[10] Section 7A (2)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (2) If a surviving spouse of a retired judge referred to in subsection (1) became the spouse of the retired judge:

- (a) after retirement of the judge, and
- (b) after the retired judge attained the age of 60 years, and
- (c) less than 5 years before the judge died,

pension is not payable under subsection (1) in respect of a child of the marriage or relationship or of any other child of the surviving spouse of the retired judge.

[11] Section 7B Pension in respect of children on death of surviving spouse of judge or retired judge

Omit section 7B (1). Insert instead:

- (1) If the surviving spouse of a judge or retired judge died before, or dies on or after, the appointed day, a pension is payable, on and from the appointed day or the day following the death of the surviving spouse, whichever is the later day, in accordance with section 7D, in respect of each eligible child of the surviving spouse or of the judge or retired judge (other than a child of any remarriage or subsequent relationship of the surviving spouse) at the annual rate of:

- (a) $520, or
 - (b) an amount calculated in accordance with subsection (2),
- whichever is the higher rate.

[12] Section 7B (2)

Omit “widow or widower” wherever occurring.

Insert instead “surviving spouse”.

[13] Section 7B (3)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

- (3) Despite subsection (1), if a surviving spouse of a retired judge became the spouse of the retired judge:
 - (a) after retirement of the judge, and
 - (b) after the retired judge attained the age of 60 years, and
 - (c) less than 5 years before the judge died,

pension is not payable under subsection (1) in respect of a child of the marriage or relationship or of any other child of the surviving spouse of the retired judge.

[14] Section 7C Pension in respect of certain children where judge or retired judge dies without leaving a surviving spouse

Omit “widow or widower” from section 7C (1).

Insert instead “surviving spouse”.

[17] Section 7C (3)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

(3) This section does not apply in relation to:

- (a) a child of a remarriage or subsequent relationship of a former husband, wife or de facto partner of a judge or retired judge, or
- (b) a child of a spouse of a retired judge who became a spouse of the retired judge:
 - (i) after the retirement of the judge, and
 - (ii) after the retired judge attained the age of 60 years, and
 - (iii) less than 5 years before the retired judge died.

[18] Section 7D

Omit the section. Insert instead:

7D Payment of pension in respect of children

- (1) Only one pension is payable in respect of a child at any one time under section 7A, 7B or 7C. If, but for this subsection, a pension would be payable in respect of a child under 2 or more of those sections, the pension payable in respect of the child is payable in accordance with a determination made by the Minister, and not otherwise.
- (2) A pension payable in respect of a child under section 7B or 7C is to be paid to the guardian of the child for the support and education of the child.

[19] Section 7E Variation of manner of payment of pension in respect of child

Omit section 7E (3). Insert instead:

- (3) The powers conferred on the Minister by subsection (1) are not exercisable in the case of a pension payable to a surviving spouse of a judge or retired judge unless the child in respect of whom the pension is payable is not living with the spouse.

[20] Section 9 Dual pensions

Omit “widow or widower” from section 9 (2).

Insert instead “surviving spouse”.

[21] Sections 10A and 12A

Omit “widow or widower” wherever occurring in the definitions of reversionary pension in sections 10A (4) and 12A (3).

Insert instead “surviving spouse”.

[22] Section 14 When lump sum benefit is payable Omit “widow or widower” wherever occurring in section 14 (4) (b)-(d).

Insert instead “surviving spouse”.

[23] Section 16B

Insert after section 16A:

16B Competing claims by surviving spouses for pensions and benefits

- (1) This section applies to the following pensions or lump sum benefits payable under this Act:
 - (a) a pension payable to the surviving spouse of a deceased judge or retired judge under section 6,
 - (b) a lump sum benefit payable to the surviving spouse of a deceased former judge or former acting judge under section 14.
- (2) If a pension or lump sum benefit to which this section applies would be payable to more than 1 person because a judge, retired judge, former judge or former acting judge (the deceased person) has died leaving more than 1 surviving spouse:
 - (a) the pension or lump sum benefit is payable in accordance with a determination made by the Minister, and not otherwise, and

- (b) the total amount of pension or lump sum benefit payable to those persons at any time is not to exceed the amount that would be payable if there were only 1 spouse.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) (a), the Minister may determine in relation to a pension or lump sum benefit to which this section applies:
 - (a) that the pension or lump sum benefit is not payable to such of the persons concerned as the Minister specifies, or
 - (b) that the amount of the pension or lump sum benefit is to be apportioned between the persons concerned in such manner as the Minister specifies.
- (4) The payment of any pension or lump sum benefit to which this section applies is to be withheld, if the Minister so directs:
 - (a) until 30 days after the death of the person as a consequence of which the pension or lump sum benefit is payable, or
 - (b) if an application has been made for the pension or lump sum benefit by more than 1 person purporting to be the spouse of a deceased person, until the Minister is satisfied as to the 1 person to whom the pension or lump sum benefit is payable or until a determination is made in relation to the matter by the Minister.
- (5) If, after 30 days from the death of a person, a pension or lump sum benefit to which this section applies is paid in respect of any period to the spouse of the deceased person, a pension or lump sum benefit to which this section applies is not payable to any other spouse of the deceased person in respect of that period, unless the Minister has made a determination to apportion the pension or lump sum benefit under subsection (3) (b).
- (6) If, after 30 days from the death of a person, part of a pension is commuted by a surviving spouse under section 12, so much of the pension as is equal to the amount of the pension so commuted is not payable to any other spouse of the deceased person.
- (7) For the purposes of subsections (5) and (6), an amount paid in good faith to a person purporting to be the spouse of a deceased person is taken to have been paid to such a spouse.
- (8) If, after 30 days from the death of a person, any amount is paid under this Act to the person's personal representatives or to such other persons as the Minister may determine, any pension or lump sum benefit to which this section applies payable to the spouse of the deceased person is to be reduced by the amount so paid.

[24] Section 17 Application of Act to and in respect of associate Judges

Omit section 17 (1) (b). Insert instead:

- (b) a person appointed before, on or after the appointed day to the office of master under section 111 of the Supreme Court Act 1970, as in force before the abolition of that office by the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005, and
- (c) a person appointed, on or after the abolition of the office of master of the Supreme Court by the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005, to the office of associate Judge under section 111 of the Supreme Court Act 1970.

[25] Section 17 (2) (d)

Omit the paragraph. Insert instead:

- (d) a reference in section 8 to prior judicial service includes a reference to the following:
 - (i) service in the offices of Master in Equity and Acting Master in Equity constituted under the Equity Act 1901 before its repeal,
 - (ii) service in the office of master or acting master of the Supreme Court under section 111 of the Supreme Court Act 1970 before the abolition of the offices of master and acting master of the Supreme Court by the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005,
 - (iii) service in the office of acting associate Judge of the Supreme Court under section 111 (2) of the Supreme Court Act 1970.

[26] Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005

[27] Schedule 1, clause 4

Insert after clause 3:

4 Application of de facto partner eligibility provisions

- (1) The de facto partner amendments have effect as if they had commenced on the de facto partner eligibility date.
- (2) Those amendments apply in the case of a judge, retired judge, former judge or former acting judge who dies on or after the de facto partner eligibility date but do not apply in respect of a judge, retired judge, former judge or former acting judge who died before the de facto partner eligibility date.

(3) Accordingly, a reference in this Act to a spouse of a judge, retired judge, former judge or former acting judge does not include a de facto partner of the judge, retired judge, former judge or former acting judge if the judge, retired judge, former judge or former acting judge died before the de facto partner eligibility date.

(4) In this clause:

de facto partner amendments means:

- (a) the amendments made to this Act by Schedule 5 to the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005 (except Schedule 5 [24] and [25]), and
- (b) the amendment made to the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1986 by Schedule 14.1 to the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005.

de facto partner eligibility date means 1 May 2005.

Schedule 6 Amendment of Jury Act 1977 No 18

(Section 3)

[1] Section 15 Appeal against being included on jury roll or being summoned from supplementary jury roll

Omit “master” from section 15 (2). Insert instead “associate Judge”.

[2] Section 45 Time for making challenge to juror

Omit “the book to” from section 45 (1).

[3] Section 72A Juror’s oath or affirmation

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) The oath or affirmation may be administered, taken or made in the manner provided for by the Oaths Act 1900 or in the prescribed manner.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the prescribed manner of administering, taking or making the oath or affirmation is:
 - (a) the person taking or making the oath or affirmation repeats the words of the oath or affirmation, or
 - (b) the officer administering the oath or affirmation repeats the words of the oath or affirmation and the person taking or making the oath or affirmation indicates his or her assent to the oath or affirmation by uttering the words “So help me God” (in the case of an oath) or “I do” (in the case of an affirmation).

- (4) The words of the oath or affirmation are the following words, or words to the following effect:
- (a) “I swear by Almighty God that I will give a true verdict according to the evidence” (in the case of an oath),
- (b) “I solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm that I will give a true verdict according to the evidence” (in the case of an affirmation).
- (5) If an oath is administered, taken or made in the prescribed manner, it is not necessary that a religious text be used by the person who is taking the oath.

Note—

Under section 11A of the Oaths Act 1900, a copy of the Bible, New Testament or Old Testament is used in administering an oath.

- (6) If an oath is taken by a person before serving as a juror, the fact that the person taking it did not have a religious belief or did not have a religious belief of a particular kind does not for any purpose affect the legality or validity of the oath.
- (7) An oath or affirmation taken or made by a person before serving as a juror is not illegal or invalid by reason of a failure to administer, take or make the oath or affirmation in accordance with this section.

[4] Schedule 8 Transitional and savings provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1A (1):

Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005 (but only to the extent that it amends this Act)

Schedule 7 Amendment of Justices of the Peace Act 2002 No 27

(Section 3)

[1] Section 7 Oaths of office to be taken

Insert at the end of the section:

- (2) A person who is re-appointed as a justice of the peace is not required to take another oath of office if the person held office as a justice of the peace immediately before that re-appointment.

[2] Schedule 1 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005

[3] Schedule 1, clause 3

Insert after clause 2:

3 Amendments made by Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005

The amendment made to section 7 by the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005 applies to any re-appointment made on or after the commencement of that amendment, regardless of when the person being re-appointed was first appointed as a justice of the peace.

Schedule 8 Amendment of Land and Environment Court Act 1979 No 204

(Section 3)

[1] Section 61A Purpose of Part

Omit section 61A (1). Insert instead:

- (1) The purpose of this Part is to enable the Court to refer matters for mediation or neutral evaluation.

[2] Sections 61D and 61E

Omit the sections. Insert instead:

61D Referral by Court

- (1) If it considers the circumstances appropriate, the Court may, by order, refer any matter arising in proceedings before it (other than criminal proceedings) for mediation or neutral evaluation, and may do so either with or without the consent of the parties to the proceedings.
- (2) The mediation or neutral evaluation is to be undertaken by a mediator or evaluator agreed to by the parties or, if the parties cannot agree, by a mediator or evaluator appointed by the Court.

61E Duty of parties to participate

It is the duty of each party to proceedings the subject of a referral to mediation or neutral evaluation to participate, in good faith, in the mediation or neutral evaluation.

[3] Section 69AA

Insert after section 69:

69AA Costs—liability of solicitor

- (1) The Court may, at any stage of any proceedings, make one or more of the following orders in respect of a solicitor whose serious neglect, serious incompetence or serious misconduct delays, or contributes to delaying, those proceedings:
 - (a) disallow the whole or any part of the costs between the solicitor and his or her client,
 - (b) direct the solicitor to repay to his or her client the whole or any part of the costs which the client has been ordered to pay to any other party,
 - (c) direct the solicitor to indemnify any party other than his or her client against the whole or any part of the costs payable by the party indemnified.
- (2) The Court may refer the matter to a costs assessor under the Legal Profession Act 1987 for inquiry and report before making such an order.
- (3) The Court may order that notice of such an order against a solicitor is to be given to the solicitor's client in a specified manner.
- (4) A solicitor is not entitled to demand, recover or accept from his or her client any part of the amount for which the solicitor is directed by the Court to indemnify a party pursuant to such an order.
- (5) Nothing in this section limits the generality of section 69 or any other provision of this Act.
- (6) A Commissioner or Commissioners may not make an order under this section except with the concurrence of a Judge.
- (7) This section does not apply to proceedings in Class 5, 6 or 7 of the Court's jurisdiction.

[4] Section 69B

Insert after section 69A:

69B Enforcement of directions of Court

- (1) If any person does not comply with a judgment or order of the Court directing the person to execute any conveyance, contract or other document, or to endorse any negotiable instrument, the Court may order, on such terms as it considers appropriate, that the conveyance, contract or other document be executed or the negotiable instrument be endorsed by a person nominated by the Court.
- (2) A conveyance, contract, document or instrument so executed or endorsed is taken for all purposes to have been executed or endorsed by the person originally directed to execute or endorse it.

[5] Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert after clause 5:

6 Provisions consequent on enactment of Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005

- (1) The amendments made to this Act by the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005 extend to proceedings before the Court that were instituted or that the Court started to hear before the commencement of the amendments.
- (2) The power conferred on the Court in respect of a judgment or order by section 69B, as inserted by the Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005, extends to a judgment or order of the Court made or given before the commencement of that section.

Schedule 9 Amendment of Legal Profession Act 2004 No 112

(Section 3)

[1] Section 338 Maximum costs fixed for claims up to $100,000

Omit “this section” from section 338 (7). Insert instead “this Division”.

[2] Section 338A

Insert after section 338:

338A Maximum costs increased by additional amount for certain claims heard by the District Court

- (1) This section applies to a claim for personal injury damages in respect of which the amount recovered does not exceed $100,000 that is made by proceedings heard by the District Court.

- (2) If the District Court referred the proceedings to arbitration and, following the arbitration, made an order for a full or limited rehearing of the proceedings concerned on the application of a party, the maximum costs fixed by this Division for legal services provided in connection with the claim to the other party are increased by the additional amount.
- (3) If the decision of the District Court in respect of a claim is the subject of an appeal, the maximum costs fixed by this Division for legal services provided in connection with the claim to the party who is the respondent to the appeal are increased by the additional amount or, if subsection (2) also applies to legal services provided to the respondent, by 2 times the additional amount.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the additional amount is:
 - (a) in the case of legal services provided to the plaintiff—15% of the amount recovered, or $7,500, whichever is the greater, and
 - (b) in the case of legal services provided to the defendant—15% of the amount sought to be recovered by the plaintiff, or $7,500, whichever is the greater.
- (5) The regulations may prescribe a percentage to replace the percentage of 15% in subsection (4) and may prescribe an amount to replace the amount of $7,500 in subsection (4). When such a replacement percentage or amount is prescribed, it applies for the purposes of subsection (4) in place of the percentage or amount that it replaces.
- (6) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the making of regulations under this section.

[3] Schedule 9 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005

Schedule 10 Amendment of Local Courts Act 1982 No 164

(Section 3)

Section 19A Court dress

Omit the section.

Schedule 11 Amendment of Oaths Act 1900 No 20

(Section 3)

Section 3 Form and manner of taking oaths

Insert “or the registrar of a Local Court” after “Magistrate” in section 3 (2A) (b).

Schedule 12 Amendment of Public Defenders Act 1995 No 28

(Section 3)

[1] Schedule 1 Provisions relating to Public Defenders

Insert after clause 8:

9 Special arrangements for Crown Prosecutors appointed as Public Defenders

- (1) A person appointed as a Senior Officer who, immediately before the appointment, held office as a Crown Prosecutor is taken to have been appointed also as a Public Defender.
- (2) Any such Senior Officer remains a Public Defender while holding office as a Senior Officer and, subject to this Act, after ceasing to hold that office.

[2] Schedule 3 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Omit “enactment of this Act.” from clause 1 (1). Insert instead:

enactment of the following Acts:

this Act

Courts Legislation Amendment Act 2005

[3] Schedule 3, clause 1 (2)

Omit “this Act”. Insert instead “the Act concerned”.

Schedule 13 Amendment of Supreme Court Act 1970 No 52

(Section 3)

[1] Section 19 Definitions generally

Insert “but does not include an associate Judge” after “the Court” in the definition of Judge in section 19 (1).

[2] Section 19 (1), definition of “registrar”

Omit the definition. Insert instead:

22 Abolition of office of master and acting master of Supreme Court

- (1) The offices of master of the Supreme Court and acting master of the Supreme Court are abolished.
- (2) On the abolition of the office of master and acting master of the Supreme Court:
 - (a) a person holding office as a master of the Supreme Court immediately before that abolition is by this clause appointed as an associate Judge of the Supreme Court, and
 - (b) a person holding office as an acting master of the Supreme Court immediately before that abolition is by this clause appointed as an acting associate Judge of the Supreme Court.
- (3) Any such person holds office subject to such terms and conditions as are specified in the instrument of the person's appointment as a master or acting master of the Supreme Court or as may be agreed by the Governor and the person.
- (4) In particular, any such person who was holding office for a specified term is taken to have been appointed to the new office for the balance of that term of office.
- (5) Sections 113 and 114 apply to an associate Judge or acting associate Judge appointed by this clause as if a reference to the person's appointment as an associate Judge or acting associate Judge were a reference to the person's appointment as a master or acting master of the Supreme Court.
- (6) Any assignment of a master or acting master to the Court of Appeal or to a Division that had effect under section 116 immediately before the abolition of the office of master or acting master is taken, on that abolition, to continue to have effect as an assignment of the associate Judge or acting associate Judge to the Court of Appeal or to the relevant Division.

- (7) Subclause (6) does not affect the Governor's power to revoke an assignment under section 116 (b).
- (8) The seniority of a person appointed as associate Judge or acting associate Judge by this clause is to be determined under section 117 as if the date of his or her assignment as an associate Judge or acting associate Judge to the Court of Appeal or to a Division were the date of his or her assignment as a master or acting master to the Court of Appeal or the relevant Division.
- (9) Service as a master or acting master of the Supreme Court is to be reckoned for all purposes as service as an associate Judge or acting associate Judge of the Supreme Court.

23 Abolition of offices to have no effect on proceedings

- (1) Proceedings pending before or being heard by a person who held the office of master or acting master of the Supreme Court immediately before the abolition of that office may continue to be heard and determined by the person as an associate Judge or acting associate Judge.
- (2) Section 104, as in force immediately before the abolition of the office of master and acting master of the Supreme Court, continues to apply in respect of any decision, judgment, order, opinion, direction or determination of the Court in a Division constituted by a master that was made or given before the abolition of the office.

24 Construction of references

- (1) A reference in any other Act (except the Constitution Act 1902), or in any instrument made under any Act, to a master or acting master of the Supreme Court (however expressed) is to be read as a reference to an associate Judge or acting associate Judge of the Supreme Court, unless otherwise provided by the regulations.
- (2) A reference in section 111 of this Act to a retired associate Judge includes a reference to a retired master of the Supreme Court.
