New South Wales

An Act to make provisions with respect to and consequential upon the adoption of children; to amend the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act 1899 and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act may be cited as the Adoption of Children Act 1965.

2 Commencement

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.
- (2) Subsection (6) of section 5 shall commence upon the day upon which the assent of Her Majesty to this Act is signified.

3, 4 (Repealed)

5 Savings

- (1) Notwithstanding the repeal of the former Acts:
 - (a) an order for adoption made under the former Acts and in force at the commencement of this Act continues in force,
 - (b) an application for an order for adoption under the former Acts that was pending immediately before the commencement of this Act may be continued and dealt with under the provisions of the former Acts as if this Act had not been passed, but an adoption order made in pursuance of this paragraph shall have effect as if made under this Act.
- (2) A consent in writing to the adoption of a child given by a person before the commencement of this Act in accordance with the former Acts shall, for the purposes of proceedings under this Act for the adoption of the child, be deemed to be a sufficient consent of the person giving the consent.

(3) Where a consent referred to in subsection (2):

- (a) is not a consent to the adoption of the child by a specified person or by specified persons, the consent shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a general consent,
- (b) is a consent to the adoption of the child by a specified person or by specified persons, that person or those persons shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a relative, or relatives, as the case may be, of the child.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the provisions of sections 35 and 36 (subsection (4) of section 36 excepted) apply, as from the commencement of this Act, in relation to an adoption order made under the former Acts as if this Act had been in force when the order was made and the order had been made under this Act upon its commencement.

(5) In relation to:

- (a) a disposition of property by will or otherwise by a person who, or by persons any of whom, died before the commencement of this Act, or
- (b) a devolution of property upon the intestacy of any person who died before the commencement of this Act, an adoption order referred to in subsection (4) has the same effect as if the former Acts had continued in operation.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where:

- (a) a will made by any person before the commencement of this subsection conferred on any person a special power of appointment in respect of any property, the objects of that power being the issue, immediate or remote, or the children, of any specified person,
- (b) that special power of appointment was or is not exercised before the general power of appointment referred to in paragraphs (c) and (d) is exercised,
- (c) that will also conferred on any person a general power of appointment in respect of that property, and
- (d) that general power of appointment has been, before that commencement, or is, after that commencement, exercised exclusively in favour of any issue, immediate or remote (including any person or persons who was or were adopted by that specified person under the former Acts) or children (including any such adopted person or persons) of that specified person, that general power shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be a special power in favour of the issue, immediate or remote, or the children, as the case may be, of that specified person to the extent to which the disposition of that property had not, by virtue of that general power of appointment, taken effect in possession before that commencement.

For all purposes of this Part, the welfare and interests of the child concerned shall be regarded as the paramount consideration.

18 Who may be adopted

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Court may, on application, make an order for the adoption of a person who:
 - (a) had not attained the age of eighteen years before the date on which the application was filed in the Court, or
 - (b) had attained that age before that date and:

their, child, or

- (ii) had, as a ward within the meaning of the Child Welfare Act 1939 or the Children (Care and Protection) Act 1987, or as a person under the parental responsibility of the Minister administering the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, been in the care or custody of the applicant or applicants or of the applicant and a deceased spouse of the applicant.

(2) Except where:

- (a) the applicant is a person, or the applicants are persons, in whose favour a consent referred to in subsection (2) of section 27 has been given,
 - (a1) the applicant, or either of the applicants, is the mother or father of the child, or
 - (b) the applicant, or either of the applicants, is a relative of the child, and the appropriate person, or every appropriate person, as the case may be, whose consent to the adoption would, but for the fact that the person is deceased, be required under section 26, has died without giving the person's consent referred to in that section, the Court shall not make an adoption order unless the application is made by the applicant or applicants with the consent of the Director-General or on behalf of the applicant or applicants by the Director-General or by the principal officer of a private adoption agency.

- (3) An application for an adoption order by an applicant, or by applicants, referred to in subsection (2), may be made on behalf of the applicant, or applicants, by the Director-General.
- (4) The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a person who is, or has been, married.
- (5) Subject to this Act, an order may be made under this Act for the adoption of a child notwithstanding that the child has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether in New South Wales or elsewhere, previously been adopted.

19 Persons in whose favour adoption orders may be made

- (1) Except as provided by subsections (1A) and (2), an adoption order shall not be made otherwise than in favour of a husband and wife jointly.
 - (1A) The Court may make an adoption order in favour of a man and a woman who are living together as husband and wife on a bona fide domestic basis although not married to each other if, without derogating from the other provisions of this Part, the Court is satisfied:
 - (a) that:

- (i) except as provided by subsection (1B), the man and woman have so lived together for a period of not less than 3 years before the date on which the application for the adoption order is made,
- (ii) except as provided by subsection (1B), the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made has been brought up, maintained and educated by the applicants as their child for a period of not less than 2 years before the date of the application, and
- (iii) the welfare and interests of the child will be better served by the making of an adoption order than by the making of any other order relating to the guardianship or custody of the child,

(b) that:

- (ii) the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made is a child of a class or description prescribed for the purposes of section 68A (1), and
- (iii) having regard to the disability or special needs of the child, it is not likely that the welfare and interests of the child will be better served by any other placement of the child, or

(c) that:

- (i) the man and woman are Aborigines (within the meaning of the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983) and are recognised as being married according to the traditions of an Aboriginal community or Aboriginal group to which they belong, and
- (ii) the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made is an Aboriginal (within the meaning of that Act).

(1B) Where the Court is of the opinion that, having regard to the circumstances of the case, the welfare and interests of the child will be better served by doing so, the Court may make an adoption order referred to in subsection (1A) even though:

- (a) the man and woman who are living together on a bona fide domestic basis although not married to each other have so lived together for a period of less than 3 years, or
- (b) the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made has not been brought up, maintained and educated by the applicants as their child for a period of not less than 2 years, before the date of the application, or where the circumstances described in paragraphs (a) and (b) both apply.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), where the Court is satisfied that in the particular circumstances of the case it is desirable so to do, the Court may make an adoption order in favour of one person.
- (3) The Court shall not make an adoption order in favour of one person if that person is married and is not living separately and apart from his or her spouse unless that person's spouse consents in writing to the application for the adoption order.
- (4) The Court may make an adoption order in favour of a husband and wife jointly or a man and a woman referred to in subsection (1A) jointly notwithstanding that one of them is a natural parent, or that they are the natural parents, of the child.

20 Age of adopters

The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child in favour of a person who or persons either of whom:

- (a) has not attained the age of twenty-one years, or
- (b) being a male person, is less than eighteen years older than the child, or, being a female person, is less than sixteen years older than the child, unless the applicant, or at least one of the applicants, is a natural parent or relative of the child or the Court considers that in the particular circumstances of the case it is desirable to make the adoption order.

21 Court to be satisfied as to certain matters

- (1) The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child unless:
 - (a) except as provided by subsection (1A), the Director-General has made a report in writing to the Court concerning the proposed adoption,
 - (b) where the application for the order is made on behalf of the applicant or applicants by the principal officer of a private adoption agency, that principal officer has also made such a report, and
 - (c) the Court, after considering any such report and any other evidence before the Court, is satisfied that:
 - (i) in the case where the child had not attained the age of 18 years before the date on which the application for the order was filed in the Court:
 - (a) the applicant or each of the applicants is of good repute and is a fit and proper person to fulfil the responsibilities of a parent, and

- (b) the applicant or each of the applicants is a suitable person to adopt that child, having regard to all relevant considerations, including the age, state of health, education (if any) and religious upbringing or convictions (if any) of the child and of the applicant or applicants, and any wishes that have been expressed by a parent or guardian of the child in an instrument of consent to the adoption of the child with respect to the religious upbringing of the child, or
 - (ii) in the case where the child had attained the age of 18 years before the date on which the application was filed in the Court:
 - (a) the applicant or each of the applicants is of good repute, and
 - (b) in the particular circumstances of the case it is desirable that the child should be adopted by the applicant or applicants,and in either case the welfare and interests of the child will be promoted by the adoption.
- (1A) The Court may dispense with the making of a report referred to in subsection (1) (a):
- (a) generally in respect of applications made on behalf of applicants by the principal officer of a private adoption agency where the Court is satisfied that the standard of applications made by that principal officer justifies such a dispensation,
 - (b) in respect of a particular application made on behalf of an applicant or applicants by the principal officer of a private adoption agency where the Court is satisfied that the particulars of that application and the report of that principal officer justify such a dispensation, or
 - (c) generally in respect of applications made by or on behalf of an applicant or applicants who is or are the natural parent or parents or relative or relatives of the child.
- (1B) The Director-General may make a report referred to in subsection (1) (a) to the Court notwithstanding that the Court has, under subsection (1A), dispensed with the making of the report.
- (1C) The Court may, in respect of an application made by a person other than the Director-General, require the Director-General to make a report referred to in subsection (1) (a) within a period of 6 months after the date of the making of the application or such other period as the Court may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, specify.
- (2) Where the regulations provide for the keeping by the Director-General of a register of persons approved by the Director-General or by the principal officer of a private adoption agency as fit and proper persons to adopt children, the Court may refuse to make an adoption order in relation to a child referred to in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (c) of subsection (1):

- (a) if, in the case of a sole applicant, the applicant's name is not included in that register or, in the case of joint applicants, neither of their names is included in that register, or
 - (b) where the name of the applicant or of either applicant or the names of both of the applicants, as the case may be, is or are included in that register—if the Court is satisfied that some other person whose name is included in that register, is entitled under the regulations to be selected by the Director-General or by the principal officer of a private adoption agency, as the case may be, to be an applicant for an adoption order in priority to the applicant or applicants for the adoption order and that other person is suitable as an adoptive parent of that child.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in any case where the applicant, or either of the applicants, for the adoption order is a parent or foster parent of the child or is a relative of the child in whose favour a consent referred to in subsection (2) of section 27 has been given or in any case where the applicant, or either of the applicants, is a relative of the child and the appropriate person, or every appropriate person, as the case may be, whose consent to the adoption would, but for the fact that the person is deceased, be required under section 26, has died without giving the person's consent referred to in that section.

21A Religious upbringing of child

- (1) Where the mother or father or a guardian of a child in respect of whom an application for an adoption order is made has not, in an instrument of consent to adoption of the child, expressed any wish with respect to the religious upbringing of the child:
 - (a) it shall not be relevant, in the exercise or performance by the Court of its powers, authorities, duties and functions under section 21, that the applicant or each of the applicants does not have a religious conviction or affiliation, and
 - (b) section 17 does not operate so as to require, and the Court shall not, in making an order for the adoption of the child, require, the applicant or each of the applicants to give any undertaking with respect to the religious upbringing of the child.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects the consideration by the Court under section 21 (1) (c) (i) (b) of the religious upbringing or convictions (if any) of the child.

22 Notice of application for adoption orders

- (1) The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child unless at least fourteen days' notice of the application for the order has been given or sent by registered post:

- (a) to any person whose consent to the adoption of the child:
 - (i) is required under section 26,
 - (ii) has not been dispensed with by an order made by virtue of section 32 (1), and
 - (iii) has not been given, and
- (b) to any person (not being a person whose consent is so required) with whom the child resides or who has the care or custody of the child.

(1A) Except as the Court may otherwise determine, nothing in subsection (1) requires a notice referred to in that subsection to be given or sent to:

- (a) a person referred to in subsection (1) (a) if that person is a person to whom section 32 (1) (h) applies, or
- (b) a person referred to in subsection (1) (b) if that person is:
 - (i) an applicant for the order for the adoption of the child, or
 - (ii) a person with whom the child resides only as a patient or inmate of a hospital of which that person is in charge or a person who has the care or custody of the child only as the person in charge of a hospital.

(2) A notice referred to in subsection (1) shall not specify the names of, or identify, the applicants.

(3) The Court may dispense with the giving of a notice under subsection (1).

(4) Where it appears to the Court to be necessary in the interests of justice so to do, the Court may direct that notice of an application for an adoption order be given to any person.

23 Parties

(1) Except as provided by subsection (2), the Court may permit such persons as the Court thinks fit to be joined as parties to the proceedings for an adoption order for the purpose of opposing the application for the order.

(2) The Court shall, on application by a person:

- (a) who is the father of a child referred to in section 26 (3),

- (2) In the case of a child who has not previously been adopted and whose parents were married to each other at the time of the child's conception or, if they were not so married, have subsequently married each other, the appropriate persons are every person who is a parent or guardian of the child.

- (6) This section does not apply in the case of a child who has attained the age of eighteen years before the making of the adoption order.
