Division 3 Development in rural and environment protection zones

11 General principles

- (1) In determining any application for the carrying out of development on land within Zone No 1 (a), 1 (c), 7 (d), 7 (L1) or 7 (L2), the council shall have regard to:
- (a) in relation to any proposed development:
 - (i) whether it is of a type compatible with the maintenance and enhancement, as far as is practicable, of the existing rural and scenic character of the Shire of Muswellbrook,
 - (ii) whether it will materially reduce the agricultural production potential of the land or of adjoining land,
 - (iii) its affect on existing or likely future mining proposals and the affect of those proposals on the proposed development,
 - (iv) whether it will create or worsen soil erosion potential,
 - (v) whether adequate utility services and community facilities will be available to the land and its future occupants or the land will be capable of accommodating on-site disposal of domestic waste and the provision of a domestic water supply, including a fire-fighting capacity,
 - (vi) whether it will create demands for unreasonable or uneconomic provision or extension of services by the council,

- (vii) whether it will generate significant additional traffic or create or increase a condition of ribbon development on any road, relative to the capacity and safety of the road,
 - (viii) whether the creation of vehicular accesses to main or arterial roads is minimized and, where no alternative access is available, whether the location and treatment of any access will minimize potential traffic hazards,
 - (ix) whether the development incorporates adequate drainage measures, including sediment and waste control, and prevention of the uncontrolled flow of water across the land or adjoining land, and
 - (x) whether, on the basis of information available to the council, adequate assessment has been made of the likely impact of the development on identified items of Aboriginal heritage value, and whether reasonable steps have been taken to determine whether any other aboriginal relics are likely to be affected by the development,
- (b) where the proposed development is or includes a subdivision:
- (i) the intended use of the allotments to be created by the subdivision relative to the ratio of depth to frontage of the allotments to be so created,
 - (ii) if the land to be subdivided has frontage to a main or arterial road—minimizing the number of allotments created as a result of the subdivision which will have vehicular access to the main or arterial road, and locating any new access points in safe positions,
 - (iii) whether the subdivision will result in the sterilisation of mineral resources,
 - (iv) whether the subdivision will to any significant extent increase the potential for ribbon development along any road,
 - (v) whether the subdivision is designed to maximize the retention of natural vegetation in any subsequent development (other than agriculture or forestry), ensure that any buildings likely to be erected on allotments to be created by the subdivision are able to be sufficiently separated to maintain the rural character of the locality and minimize the potential for significant alterations to the natural land form in any subsequent development by way of the construction of access driveways, excavations, filling and the like,
 - (vi) whether adequate all-weather flood-free access will be available to each allotment to be created as a result of the subdivision,
 - (vii) whether each allotment to be created as a result of the subdivision will include flood-free land for building sites and for movement of any stock during floods,

- (viii) whether each allotment to be created as a result of the subdivision will provide potential building sites with minimum risk of damage by bushfires,
 - (ix) whether allotments to be created as a result of the subdivision and intended to be used primarily for the grazing of stock will be of sufficient size to ensure the provision of an adequate water supply for stock unless water can otherwise be provided, and
 - (x) whether adequate soil erosion control measures will be incorporated in the subdivision, including measures prior to the subdivision, and
- (c) where the proposed development is or includes the erection of a building:
- (i) whether the building will be sited and designed, and be of an appropriate scale so as to maintain, in the opinion of the council, the rural character of the locality, minimize disturbance to the landscape through clearing, earthworks, access roads, the use of platforms or stilts or other construction measures and generally fit into its environment to the maximum extent consistent with its being sited to minimize flood and bushfire hazards,
 - (ii) whether the building will intrude into the skyline when viewed from roads or other public places,
 - (iii) whether the building will be sited in relation to the boundaries of the land on which it is to be erected, to existing buildings on that land or on adjoining land, and to potential building sites on adjoining land, in order that, in the opinion of the council, an overconcentration of buildings will be avoided, and that the overall pattern of building development will maintain the rural character of the locality,
 - (iv) the possibility of landscaping the curtilage of the building so as to lessen the impact of that building on its natural or rural setting,
 - (v) whether essential rural buildings are to be sited in a position of least flood risk with respect to ground level access and flood velocity,
 - (vi) whether the floor level of any proposed dwelling is above the 100 year flood level and whether the structure is capable of withstanding floodwater pressures, and
 - (vii) whether adequate all-weather flood-free access will be available to the building.

12 Clearing of land

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), a person may, without the consent of the council, clear land within Zone No 1 (a) or 1 (c) for the purposes of agriculture, forestry or fire safety.

- (2) The Council must not consent to an application to subdivide land within Zone No 1 (a) 1 (c), 7 (d), 7 (L1) or 7 (L2) unless it has obtained all relevant information in relation to, and made an assessment of:
- (a) the primary purpose for which each allotment to be created by the subdivision is intended to be used,
 - (b) whether any allotment to be created by the subdivision is intended to be used primarily for the purposes of agriculture, and
 - (c) whether a dwelling is intended to be erected on any allotment to be created by the subdivision and the approximate location of any such dwelling.

14 Subdivision—special provisions

- (1) Land within Zone No 1 (a), 7 (d), 7 (L1) or 7 (L2) shall not be subdivided unless each allotment to be created has an area of not less than 40 hectares.
- (2) Notwithstanding subclause (1), an allotment of land having an area of less than 40 hectares but not less than 10 hectares may be created within Zone No 1 (a), 7 (d), 7 (L1) or 7 (L2) if the council is satisfied the allotment is intended to be used for the purposes of agriculture or horticulture.
- (3) Notwithstanding subclause (1), an allotment of land having an area of less than 40 hectares may be created within Zone No 1 (a), 7 (d), 7 (L1) or 7 (L2) if the council is satisfied the allotment is intended to be used for a permissible purpose other than agriculture, forestry or a dwelling-house (not being a dwelling-house ancillary to the purpose) and if none of the land is prime crop and pasture land.
- (4) (Repealed)
- (5) Land within Zone No 1 (c) shall not be subdivided unless:
- (a) each separate allotment created by the subdivision has an area of 4,000 square metres or more,
 - (b) arrangements satisfactory to the council have been made for the provision of water and drainage services to the land and for the disposal of sewage from the land, and
 - (c) the land capability (including soil resource and soil stability), natural constraints and hazards of the land to be subdivided in relation to the density of the allotments has been assessed by the council.

- (6) This clause does not restrict or prohibit the subdivision of land for the purpose of road widening or any other public purpose.

Note—

Clause 9 of the State Environmental Planning Policy (Rural Lands) 2008 enables subdivision of lots smaller than allowed by this plan for the purposes of primary production.

15 Dwelling-houses

- (1) Except as provided by subclauses (2), (3) and 4, one but not more than one dwelling-house may be erected on land within Zone No 1 (a), 7 (d), 7 (L1) or 7 (L2) but only if the land:

 - (b) comprises a vacant existing parcel of land, or
 - (c) comprises an allotment within a subdivision which was approved by the council after 9 August 1985.
 - (d) (Repealed)
- (2) In addition to a dwelling-house permitted by subclause (1), additional dwelling-houses may, with the consent of the council, be erected where the additional dwelling-house or dwelling-houses are or will be occupied by a relative of the owner or a person employed or engaged by the owner of the land in the use of the land for the purpose of agriculture.
- (3) A dwelling-house may be erected on an allotment of land created by subdivision in accordance with clause 14 (2) if:
- (a) the use of the dwelling-house is ancillary to agricultural purposes,
 - (b) the applicant has satisfied the council of the need to have a dwelling-house on the subject allotment, and
 - (c) the lot created under clause 14 (2) has been operated as a viable agricultural activity independent from other land for a minimum period of 2 years after subdivision consent was granted.
- (4) A dwelling-house may be erected on an allotment of land created by subdivision in accordance with clause 14 (3) where the use of the dwelling-house is ancillary to the purpose for which the allotment was intended to be used and the use is established.
- (5) Nothing in this clause shall prevent the erection of a dwelling-house on land on which another dwelling-house is erected where the additional dwelling-house to be erected is intended to replace the original dwelling-house and is not occupied until the original dwelling-house is demolished or its occupation has permanently ceased.

- (6) A dwelling-house shall not be created on an allotment of land within Zone No 1 (c) unless the allotment has an area of 4,000 square metres or more.

15A Dwelling entitlements on existing concessional lots

The amendment of this plan by the State Environmental Planning Policy \(Rural Lands\) 2008 does not affect any entitlement arising under a provision of this plan (as in force before that amendment) to erect a dwelling-house on a lot, if:

- (a) the lot was created before that commencement, or
- (b) development consent to the creation of the lot was applied for, or granted, before that commencement.

16 Special requirements—Zone No 7 (d)

- (1) The council may require, as a condition of its consent to the clearing of land within Zone No 7 (d), that existing vegetation that should, in the opinion of the council, be retained be so retained in appropriate locations, or new vegetation be planted to reduce the visual impact of clearing to the maximum extent consistent, in the opinion of the council, with the use of the land for agricultural production.
- (2) The council may require, as a condition of its consent to the erection of any building on land within Zone No 7 (d), that the external surfaces of buildings erected be of low reflective quality and be painted or otherwise finished in a manner which, in the opinion of the council, blends with the landscape of the site area and its surroundings.
- (3) In the case of a dwelling-house, any requirements of the council under subclause (2) shall have regard to the effective heat installation of the building.
- (4) The council shall not consent to the carrying out of development for the purposes of an extractive industry on land within Zone No 7 (d) unless it is satisfied that the development:
- (a) will be suitably screened from public roads, other vantage points or other development likely to be disadvantaged by exposure to works,
- (b) will not permanently destroy or impair the agricultural production potential of the land, and
- (c) will not detrimentally affect in any way the quantity and quality of water in either subterranean or surface water systems.

17 Special requirements—Zone No 7 (L1)

- (1) In determining any development application in relation to land within Zone No 7 (L1), the council may impose such conditions as it considers appropriate or necessary to ensure that:
 - (a) alluvial land or other land capable of being irrigated is not rendered incapable of agricultural production or that any loss of production potential of that land is minimized and that any agricultural relationship between irrigable land and high land is not necessarily reduced, and
 - (b) the possible long-term construction of a railway is not prejudiced by the construction of major buildings or works within the narrowest practicable corridor identified by the council for that purpose pursuant to clause 19.
- (2) Subject to clauses 34 (1) (b) and 35, the council may consent to the carrying out of development on land within Zone No 7 (L1) for:
 - (a) the purposes of an extractive industry or for underground mining (other than surface works associated therewith), where it is satisfied that such development will not:
 - (i) destroy or impair the agricultural production potential of the land or, in the case of underground mining, unreasonably restrict or otherwise affect any other development on the surface,
 - (ii) detrimentally affect in any way the quantity and quality of water in either subterranean or surface water systems, or
 - (iii) in the case of an extractive industry, visually intrude into its surroundings, except by way of suitable screening, or
 - (b) a purpose permissible in an adjoining rural or environmental protection zone, where it is satisfied that the land is not physically part of the alluvial plain and the development will not have the effects referred to in paragraph (a) (i), (ii) and (iii).

18 Special requirements—Zone No 7 (L2)

- (1) In determining any development applications in relation to land within Zone No 7 (L2), the council shall have regard to:
 - (a) the general objective of restricting development within the zone so as to provide a visual and noise buffer between the town of Muswellbrook and land on which mining is or may be carried out,
 - (b) whether the development the subject of the development application is likely to be visible from any land within Zone No 2 (a), 2 (b), 2 (c), 5 (a), 6 (a) or 6 (b) within the town of Muswellbrook and, if so, the extent to which the development may need to be screened by landscaping or other means,

- (c) whether the development is likely to create noise, or be affected by noise from mining, and the means available to minimize either effect, and
