State Environmental Planning Policy No 34—Major Employment-Generating Industrial Development (1993 EPI 125)

New South Wales

1 Name of Policy

This Policy may be cited as State Environmental Planning Policy No 34—Major Employment-Generating Industrial Development.

2 Commencement

This Policy commences one month after the day on which it is published in the Gazette.

3 Aims, objectives etc

The aims of this Policy are:

- to promote and co-ordinate the orderly and economic use and development of land and the economic welfare of the State, and
- to facilitate certain types of major employment-generating industrial development of State significance, and
- to facilitate the carrying out of labour intensive rural industrial development of State significance, and
- to achieve appropriate planning controls in respect of such development, and
- to provide for public participation and involvement in the assessment of applications for consent to carry out such development.

4 Definitions

In this Policy:

extractive materials means sand, gravel, clay, turf, soil, rock, stone or similar substances.

mineral means coal, oil shale and petroleum and any substance prescribed as a mineral under the Mining Act 1992.

processing includes manufacturing, formulating, producing, assembling, altering, making or transforming.

the Act means the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979.

5 Land to which this Policy applies

This Policy applies to the State.

6 Relationship to other environmental planning instruments

Subject to section 74 (1) of the Act, in the event of an inconsistency between this Policy and another environmental planning instrument (including State Environmental Planning Policy No 30—Cattle Feedlots, but not including State Environmental Planning Policy No 4—Development Without Consent), whether made before or after the commencement of this Policy, this Policy prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

7 Development to which this Policy applies

This Policy applies to development included in Schedule 1.

8 Consent authority

The consent authority for the purposes of development to which this Policy applies is the Minister for Planning.

9 Development consent required

- (1) A person must not carry out development to which this Policy applies except with the consent of the consent authority.
- (2) Nothing in this Policy authorises the carrying out of development if the carrying out of the development is not otherwise permitted, whether with or without development consent.

10 Advertising of development which is not designated

The provisions of sections 84, 85, 86, 87 (1) and 90 of the Act apply to and in respect of development (not being designated development) to which this Policy applies in the same way as those provisions apply to and in respect of designated development.

11 Consultation with local councils

- (1) The consent authority must give notice to a council of any application for consent to carry out any development to which this Policy applies which is proposed to be carried out in the council's area.
- (2) The notice is to invite the council to make a submission to the consent authority in respect of the application and is to specify the manner in which and the period, being not less than 30 days, during which the submission may be made.

12 Consideration of submissions

In determining an application for consent to the carrying out of development to which this Policy applies, the consent authority must consider any submissions made pursuant to clause 10 or 11.

13 Transitional provision—applications made before the commencement of this Policy

This Policy does not apply to or in respect of:

- (a) the carrying out of an activity (within the meaning of Part 5 of the Act) for which approval was granted by a determining authority (within the meaning of that Part) before the commencement of this Policy, if the activity commences pursuant to that approval not later than 3 years after that commencement, or
- (b) an application for the approval of an activity (within the meaning of that Part), if the application was made at any time within 1 year before the commencement of this Policy to a determining authority (within the meaning of that Part) but had not been determined before the commencement of this Policy, or
- (c) the carrying out of an activity pursuant to such an approval, if the approval is granted and the activity commences pursuant to that approval not later than 3 years after the approval is granted, or
- (d) the carrying out of an activity exempted from the application of State Environmental Planning Policy No 30—Cattle Feedlots by clause 3 (2) of that Policy, or
- (e) the determination of a development application which was made, but not determined, before the commencement of this Policy.

Schedule 1 Development to which this Policy applies

(Clause 7)

Development:

- (a) which in the opinion of the consent authority:
  - (i) would, after the construction stage, employ 100 or more persons on a full-time basis (or such number of persons on some other basis as would be equivalent) or, in the case of intensive livestock operations, 20 or more persons on a full-time basis (or such number of persons on some other basis as would be equivalent), or
  - (ii) has a capital investment value of $20 million or more (excluding land), and
- (b) which is of one or more of the following types or for the purpose of one or more of the following:
  - (i) intensive livestock operations, for example development for the purpose of cattle feedlots,
