Bellingen Local Environmental Plan 1990

New South Wales

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of plan

This plan may be cited as Bellingen Local Environmental Plan 1990.

2 Aims, objectives etc

- (1) The principal aim of this plan is to encourage development in the Shire of Bellingen which is designed and carried out in a way that respects the environmental quality and capacity of the land and the needs of the community.
- (2) The objectives of this plan are:
 - (a) in relation to agriculture—to define prime agricultural land and to discourage from such land those uses which jeopardise the potential of the land for agricultural purposes, and
 - (b) in relation to environmental protection—to encourage a form of development that minimises risks to sensitive environments, including wetlands, coastal systems, wooded slopes, ridge lines, scenic areas, river systems (including the mitigation of river bank failure, erosion or accretion) and other similar resources, and
 - (c) in relation to the environmental heritage—to provide for the protection of items of the environmental heritage and historic importance (including Bellingen business centre) and to guide the restoration of any items of the environmental heritage that may from time to time be identified, and
 - (d) in relation to employment—to accommodate development which will both directly and indirectly increase job opportunities for the residents of the Shire in appropriate locations, and
 - (e) in relation to tourism—to provide opportunities for tourist oriented development while protecting those elements of the Shire’s character and environmental quality that are attractive to tourists, and
 - (f) in relation to housing—to enable development for residential purposes that maximises housing choice (in terms of dwelling types and costs and different lifestyles) and the use of existing physical and social infrastructure and minimises development costs, and

- (g) in relation to services—to encourage a type and intensity of development appropriate for the location and in a sequence that maximises the efficiency and minimises the cost of providing transport, utility and community services, and
- (h) in relation to land hazard—to limit the development of land adversely affected by flooding, soil erosion, landslip or bushfire, and
- (i) in relation to recreation—to provide opportunities for public and private recreation facilities associated with tourist and local resident needs, and
- (j) in relation to land at Urunga generally bounded by Hillside Drive, Pacific Highway, South Pacific Ocean and Hungry Head Road:
 - (i) to provide opportunities for the staged expansion of residential and rural residential development at Urunga, and
 - (ii) to encourage a range and choice of housing types and densities, and
 - (iii) to enable the provision of public and private services and amenities to meet the needs of an increased population, and
 - (iv) to encourage development related to tourism and recreation in a manner which complements the lifestyle and living environment for permanent residents, and
 - (v) to ensure that development is carried out in a manner which minimises risks of pollution, siltation or other degradation of significant wetlands, Urunga Lagoon and coastal ecosystems, and
 - (vi) to maximise the retention of existing trees in any development, and
 - (vii) to preserve wildlife habitat, and
 - (viii) to enable the council to prepare development control plans to provide guidelines for applicants and to regulate the carrying out of development in any zone:
 - (A) by restricting the carrying out of that development to a specified area within the zone, or
 - (B) by fixing standards or specifying requirements in respect of any aspect of that development.

29 Development on main and arterial road frontages

- (1) This clause applies to land:
 - (a) having frontage to a main or arterial road, or
 - (b) which otherwise relies on a main or arterial road for its sole means of access, or
 - (c) which has access to a road which intersects with a main or arterial road and the point of access is within 90 metres of the intersection of the road and the main or arterial road.
- (2) The council shall not grant consent to development on land to which this clause applies, unless it is satisfied that:
 - (a) the development by its nature, intensity or the volume and type of traffic likely to be generated is unlikely to constitute a traffic hazard or to materially reduce the capacity and efficiency of the main or arterial road, and

- (b) the development is of a type, whether or not related to the characteristics of the land on which it is proposed to be carried out, that justifies a location in proximity to a main or arterial road, and
 - (c) the location, standard and design of access points, and on site arrangements for vehicle movement and parking, ensure that through traffic movements on the main or arterial road are not impeded, and
 - (d) the development will not prejudice future improvements or realignment to a main or arterial road, as may be indicated to the council from time to time by the Roads and Traffic Authority, or any associated intention of that Authority to proclaim part of the road as a controlled access road within the meaning of the State Roads Act 1986.
- (3) The council may grant consent to the carrying out of development on land to which this clause applies (other than land adjoining a controlled access road within the meaning of the State Roads Act 1986) for the purposes of providing services to motorists, tourists and the travelling public, including development for the purposes of a motel, general store, tourist facility or a service station, where:
- (a) the council is satisfied that demand for such development exists, having regard to the nature and volume of traffic using the road, the location and distance of existing development of a similar type and the location of and distance from other land on which development of a similar type may be carried out, and
 - (b) the development comprises or is part of a planned roadside service area that has been located and designed so as to minimise traffic hazards and interference with the free flow of traffic on the road.

the vicinity, and

- (iii) the structural characteristics of any building or works the subject of the application are capable of withstanding flooding, and
 - (iv) the development does not involve any risk to life, human safety or private property in time of flood, and
- (b) satisfactory arrangements are to be made for access to the building or work during a flood.
- (5) The council may refuse consent to the carrying out of any development on land to which this plan applies which, in its opinion, will:
- (a) affect the flood level at any point above or below the development, or

 - (c) cause soil erosion, siltation or destruction of river bank vegetation, or
 - (d) affect the water table of any adjoining land, or
 - (e) adversely affect river bank stability, or
 - (f) involve a risk to life, human safety, or private property at time of flood.

- (7) The aim of subclauses (8)–(10) is to provide for consideration to be given to the risks of causing the oxidation of potentially acid sulphate soils (through the removal of soil from below the surface of the ground water table or through artificially lowering the level of the water table), with the possible subsequent contamination or degradation of land areas and water bodies.
- (8) Except as provided by subclause (9), a person shall not, without the consent of the council, carry out any development on flood liable land:
- (a) for drainage purposes, or
 - (b) for the purpose of excavating the land or otherwise altering the ground levels of the land, or
 - (c) for the purpose of constructing a dam.
- (9) The consent of the council is not required in relation temporary trenching, such as for the purpose of laying pipelines or other services (excluding drainage works), where the soil is replaced to the same relative position within 1 week of initial exposure.

(10) In deciding whether to grant consent as required by this clause, the council shall take into consideration:

- (a) the risks of exposing potentially acid sulphate soils to oxidation, and
