Note—

Part 4 of the Community Services (Complaints, Reviews and Monitoring) Act 1993 enables a person to complain to the Ombudsman about the provision, failure to provide, withdrawal, variation or administration of a community service in respect of a particular person or group of persons.

- (b) a decision made by the Minister or the Director-General to provide, or to continue to provide, a designated service within the meaning of the Disability Services Act 1993, where the provision of the service in accordance with the decision does not conform with the objects of that Act or the principles or applications of principles set out in Schedule 1 to that Act,
