Residential Tenancies Regulation 2006

New South Wales

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Residential Tenancies Regulation 2006.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 September 2006.

Note—

This Regulation replaces the Residential Tenancies (Residential Premises) Regulation 1995 which is repealed on 1 September 2006 by section 10 (3) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

3 Definition and notes

(1) In this Regulation:

the Act means the Residential Tenancies Act 1987.

(2) Notes included in this Regulation (other than notes in the Schedules) do not form part of this Regulation.

4 Application of Act to moveable dwellings

The Act applies to residential tenancy agreements under which the residential premises consist of a moveable dwelling (but not to those residential tenancy agreements to which the Residential Parks Act 1998 applies) in the same manner and to the same extent as it applies to other residential tenancy agreements.

Note—

Section 7 (1) of the Act provides that the Act does not apply to residential tenancy agreements to which the Residential Parks Act 1998 applies. Section 7 (2) of the Act provides that the Act applies to any other residential tenancy agreements under which the residential premises consist of a moveable dwelling, but only in the manner and to the extent specified by the regulations.

Part 2 Residential tenancy agreements

5 Agreements excluded from definition of “social housing tenancy agreement”

- (1) A residential tenancy agreement in respect of premises let by any of the following is prescribed as not being within the definition of social housing tenancy agreement in section 3 (1) of the Act:
  - (a) the Office of Community Housing of the Department of Housing,
  - (b) an organisation for the time being registered with the Office of Community Housing,
  - (c) an organisation for the time being registered under Part 5 of the Aboriginal Housing Act 1998.
- (2) However, subclause (1) does not apply to a residential tenancy agreement in respect of premises let by an organisation (as referred to in subclause (1) (b)) in connection with the housing project known as the “Bonnyrigg Living Communities Project”.

6 Standard form of residential tenancy agreement

- (1) The standard form of residential tenancy agreement is:
  - (a) in the case of an agreement which creates a tenancy for a term not exceeding 3 years—the form set out in Schedule 1, or
  - (b) in the case of an agreement which creates a tenancy for a term exceeding 3 years—the form set out in Schedule 2.
- (2) The standard form of residential tenancy agreement set out in Schedule 2 must be in a form approved by the Registrar-General for registration under the Real Property Act 1900.
- (3) When this Regulation is amended by altering, adding or substituting a standard form of residential tenancy agreement, the amendment does not apply to a residential tenancy agreement entered into before the commencement of the amendment.

7 Provision of information to tenant

- (1) At or before the time of entering into a residential tenancy agreement the landlord must provide the tenant with a copy of The Renting Guide: Your basic rights and responsibilities as a tenant as published by the NSW Office of Fair Trading or such other information about being a tenant in the form as approved by the Tenancy Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: 1 penalty unit.

- (2) It is sufficient compliance with this clause if the landlord’s agent provides the tenant with a copy of the information in the approved form.

8 Condition report

- (1) The condition report relating to the condition of residential premises contained or referred to in a standard form of residential tenancy agreement:
  - (a) must be completed by or on behalf of the landlord at or before the time the agreement is given to the tenant for signing, and
  - (b) must be given in duplicate by the landlord to the tenant at or before the time that the tenant signs the agreement.
- (2) The tenant must complete and give one copy of the condition report to the landlord not later than 7 days after receiving it and both parties must retain a copy of the report.
- (3) At, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the termination of a residential tenancy agreement entered into in the standard form, both the landlord and tenant must complete the copy of the condition report retained by the landlord or the tenant under this clause, in the presence of the other party.
- (4) It is not a breach of subclause (3) for the condition report to be completed in the absence of the other party if the party completing the report has given the other party a reasonable opportunity to be present when it is completed.

9 Exemptions from obligation to include a condition report

The following classes of residential tenancy agreements are exempt from the operation of section 8 (4) of the Act (which requires a prescribed standard form of residential tenancy agreement to include a condition report):

- (a) a residential tenancy agreement that creates a tenancy for a term exceeding 3 years,

Note—

The registrable standard form of residential tenancy agreement that creates a tenancy for a term exceeding 3 years does not include a condition report, but the standard form (set out in Schedule 2) requires such a condition report, which must be completed in the usual manner. The condition report does not have to be registered.

- (b) a residential tenancy agreement which is a renewed agreement (that is, an agreement made on or before the termination of a previous agreement entered into by the same tenant in respect of the same residential premises) where:
  - (i) that or any other previous residential tenancy agreement entered into by the tenant included a condition report for the premises, and
  - (ii) the renewed agreement provides for such a condition report to form part of the renewed agreement, and

- (iii) the resident's occupation of the premises has been continuous since entering into occupation of the premises under the agreement that included that condition report.

Part 3 Fees, costs and charges

10 Maximum costs payable by tenant

For the purposes of section 12 of the Act, the maximum amount payable by a tenant for the costs of preparation of a written residential tenancy agreement and for any other charges (other than duty chargeable under the Duties Act 1997) payable by the tenant in respect of the agreement is:

- (a) in the case of an agreement creating a tenancy exceeding 3 years that is registered under the Real Property Act 1900—the fee prescribed under that Act to register the dealing plus $15, or
- (b) in any other case, $15.

11 Prescribed charges not payable by landlord

- (1) For the purposes of section 19 of the Act, the prescribed charges are any of the following charges:
  - (a) any charges for pumping out a septic system used in connection with the residential premises, other than charges included in rates made under the Local Government Act 1993,
  - (b) any charges for water used in connection with the residential premises (in addition to charges for excess water) for which the tenant has agreed to pay under the terms of the residential tenancy agreement, but only if the charge is calculated according to the metered amount of water consumed and there is no minimum rate chargeable,
  - (c) any excess garbage or sanitary charges relating to the tenant's use of the residential premises.
- (2) This clause does not apply to a residential tenancy agreement entered into before 31 August 1995 (being the date of commencement of clause 11 of the Residential Tenancies (Residential Premises) Regulation 1995). When this clause is amended, the amendment does not apply to a residential tenancy agreement entered into before the commencement of the amendment.

12 Reservation fees

- (1) For the purposes of section 36 of the Act, the circumstances in which a person may require or receive a reservation fee from a prospective tenant are circumstances in which the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the fee does not exceed one week's rent of the residential premises concerned (based on the proposed rent under the proposed residential tenancy agreement),

    - (i) the premises will not be let during a specified period, pending the making of a residential tenancy agreement, and
    - (ii) if the landlord has not decided to enter into a residential tenancy agreement in the agreed terms for the residential premises concerned during that period, the whole of the fee will be refunded, and
    - (iii) if the entering into of the residential tenancy agreement is conditional on the landlord carrying out repairs or other work and the landlord does not carry out the repairs or other work during the specified period, the whole of the fee will be refunded, and
    - (iv) if the prospective tenant decides not to enter into such an agreement, and the premises were not let or otherwise occupied during the period they were reserved, the landlord may retain so much of the fee as is equal to the amount of rent that would have been paid during the period the premises were reserved (based on the proposed rent) but is required to refund the remainder (if any) of the fee, and
    - (v) if a residential tenancy agreement is entered into, the fee is to be paid towards rent for the residential premises concerned.
- (2) A reservation fee must not be required of a person who is a tenant in respect of the residential premises and must not be received from such a person.

(3) In this clause:

reservation fee means an amount paid or required to be paid by a prospective tenant, or any person on behalf of a prospective tenant, in consideration for not letting residential premises pending the making of a residential tenancy agreement.

Part 4 Disposal of goods left by tenant

- (1) Goods that have been left on residential premises by the tenant after the tenant vacates the premises become uncollected goods for the purposes of this Part when the tenant vacates the premises.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), if the tenant vacates the premises before the residential tenancy agreement is terminated, the goods become uncollected goods when the agreement is terminated.
- (3) Uncollected goods may be disposed of as provided by this Part, but only if the requirements of this Part are complied with.

14 Options available to the landlord when goods not collected

- (1) Uncollected goods that have not been removed from the residential premises by the tenant within 2 working days after they became uncollected goods are to be dealt with as provided by this clause.
- (2) The goods are to be stored in a safe place by the landlord unless the goods are disposed of as authorised by this clause.

- (5) In this clause:

working day means any day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

15 Notice to tenant that goods are in storage

- (1) When goods are stored by the landlord, the landlord must give the tenant written notice that the goods have been stored. The notice must also be published in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State. The notice must be given and published within 7 days after the goods are stored.
- (2) The notice may (in addition to any other way in which it may be given) be given to the tenant by being sent by post to the tenant at the last forwarding address known to the landlord.

17 Claiming uncollected goods

- (1) A person who is entitled to possession of goods left on residential premises may claim the goods at any time before they are destroyed, sold or otherwise disposed of under this Part.
- (2) The landlord must deliver up the goods to a person who claims them if the landlord is satisfied that the person is entitled to claim them.
- (3) The landlord is entitled to require payment of the landlord's costs and expenses actually incurred in the removal and storage of goods (not exceeding a reasonable amount for those costs and expenses), before delivering goods to a person under this clause.
- (4) If a claim is for some but not all of the goods, and the remaining goods are worth enough to cover the reasonable costs of removal and storage of all of the goods, the landlord must deliver the claimed goods to the claimant without requiring payment of the landlord's reasonable costs of removal and storage of the claimed goods.

36 Previous actions etc not affected

- (1) Nothing in the Act or this Part:
- (a) affects the validity of any action done or not done or payment made in pursuance of a term of a written or partly written and partly oral residential tenancy agreement before 30 October 1989 even though the term contravenes, is ineffective or is void because of the Act or this Part, or
  - (b) except as provided by subclause (2), affects any right or remedy which a landlord or a tenant under such an agreement would have had but for the Act or this Part in relation to any such action or omission or payment or any breach of the agreement that occurred before that date.
- (2) A landlord or tenant may not, on and from 30 October 1989, terminate a written or partly written and partly oral residential tenancy agreement made before that date, except in accordance with the Act.

LANDLORD'S CHANGE OF ADDRESS

23. The landlord agrees:

23.1 if the address of the landlord changes (and the landlord does not have an agent), to give the tenant notice in writing of the change within 14 days, and

Notes—

1. Definitions

In this agreement:

"landlord" means the person who grants the right to occupy residential premises under this agreement, and includes the person's heirs, executors, administrators and assigns,

"landlord's agent" means a person who acts as the agent of the landlord and who (whether or not the person carries on any other business) carries on business as an agent for:

- (a) the letting of residential premises, or
- (b) the collection of rents payable for any tenancy of residential premises,

"regulations" means regulations under the Residential Tenancies Act 1987,

"rental bond" means money paid by the tenant as security to carry out this agreement,

"residential premises" means any premises or part of premises (including any land occupied with the premises) used or intended to be used as a place of residence,

"tenancy" means the right to occupy residential premises under this agreement,

"tenant" means the person who has the right to occupy residential premises under this agreement, and includes the person's heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

2. Notes on ending the tenancy

The first step to end a tenancy is, almost always, for the landlord or the tenant to give a notice of termination. The tenancy ends when the tenant moves out, on or after the day specified in the notice, or when the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal orders the tenancy to end.

3. Notices of termination

- (1) A notice of termination must:
  - (a) be in writing, and
  - (b) state the address of the rented premises, and
  - (c) be signed and dated, and
  - (d) allow the required period of time, and
  - (e) give the date the tenant intends to, or is requested to, move out on, and
  - (f) give the reasons for ending the agreement (if any), and
  - (g) be properly given.
- (2) If the notice is given by or on behalf of a landlord, the notice must state that "information about the tenant's rights and obligations can be found in the residential tenancy agreement".

4. How notices are properly given

- (1) A notice of termination given to a tenant may be:
  - (a) posted to the tenant's home, or
  - (b) given to the tenant personally, or
  - (c) given to a person aged over 16 who normally pays the rent, or
  - (d) given to a person aged over 16 at the premises to pass on to the tenant.
- (2) A notice of termination given to a landlord may be:
  - (a) posted to the landlord's address, or
  - (b) given to the landlord (or to the landlord's agent) personally, or
  - (c) posted or faxed to the landlord's agent's place of business, or
  - (d) given to a person aged over 16 who normally collects the rent.

5. When and how much notice can be given?

- (1) When and how much notice can be given depends on the type of residential tenancy agreement and the reasons for giving notice.
- (2) There are 2 types of agreements; "fixed term agreements" and "continuing agreements":
  - (a) a "fixed term agreement" is one that is for a specified period of time and ends on a specified date. If the date this agreement is due to end (see page 1 of this agreement) has not passed you are still on a fixed term agreement, and
  - (b) a "continuing agreement" does not end on a specified date. These agreements usually begin when a fixed term agreement expires and a new one is not entered into, although an agreement can be a continuing one from the beginning.

6. How to end a fixed term agreement

A fixed term agreement may be ended for the following reasons, provided that at least 14 days' notice is given:

- (a) if the tenant breaks one of the agreement's terms,
- (b) if the tenant is more than 14 days in arrears of rent,
- (c) if the landlord breaks one of the agreement's terms,
- (d) if the landlord or tenant want to end the tenancy at the end of a fixed term agreement (in which case, notice can be given until the final day of the fixed term period, otherwise the agreement becomes a continuing agreement).

7. How to end a continuing agreement

- (1) Unlike fixed term agreements, the amount of notice that a tenant or a landlord must give to end a continuing agreement is not always the same.

- (2) A continuing agreement may be ended by a landlord in the following ways:
- (a) without stating a reason (in which case at least 60 days' notice must be given),
  - (b) on exchange of a sale contract that requires vacant possession of the rented premises (in which case at least 30 days' notice must be given),
  - (c) if the tenant breaks one of the agreement's terms or is more than 14 days in arrears of rent (in which case at least 14 days' notice must be given).
- (3) A continuing agreement may be ended by a tenant:
- (a) without reason (in which case at least 21 days' notice must be given), or
  - (b) if the landlord breaks one of the agreement's terms (in which case at least 14 days' notice must be given).

8. Vacant possession

A notice of termination does not end the tenancy by itself. The tenant must return vacant possession of the premises to the landlord, on or after the day specified in the notice, for the tenancy to end. An application may be made to the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal if the tenant does not vacate when required.

9. Warning

It is an offence for any person to obtain possession of the premises without an order of the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal if the tenant does not willingly move out. Fines and compensation can be ordered by a court in relation to such offences.

10. Rent increases

- (1) The landlord cannot increase the rent during the fixed term unless the agreement sets out the amount of the increase or the method of calculating the amount of the rent increase.
- (2) The tenant must get 60 days' notice in writing if the landlord wants to increase the rent. This applies even when the agreement provides for, or permits, a rent increase. Where a notice of an increase has been given and the landlord and tenant subsequently agree to a lesser increase than in the notice, the landlord does not need to give a further 60 days' notice.
- (3) The tenant can apply to the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal within 30 days of getting the notice of the rent increase for an order that the rent increase is excessive, having regard to the general market level of rents for similar premises in similar locations.
- (4) If the landlord has reduced or withdrawn any goods, services or facilities, the tenant can at any time apply to the Tribunal for an order that the rent is excessive.

Part 2 Condition report

ADDRESS OF PREMISES:

HOW TO COMPLETE

1. Three copies of this condition report are filled out and signed by the landlord or the landlord's agent.

2. The landlord or the landlord’s agent record the condition of the residential premises by indicating whether the particular room item is clean, undamaged and working by placing “Y” (YES) or “N” (NO) in the appropriate column (see example below).
3. Two copies of the report which have been filled in and signed by the landlord or the landlord’s agent are given to the tenant at or before the time of entering into the agreement. The landlord keeps the third copy.
4. The tenant indicates agreement or disagreement with the condition indicated by the landlord or landlord’s agent by placing “Y” (YES) or “N” (NO) in the appropriate columns (see example below).
5. The tenant returns one copy of the completed condition report to the landlord or landlord’s agent and keeps the second copy.
6. At, or as soon as practicable after, the termination of a residential tenancy agreement, both the landlord and tenant should complete the copy of the condition report that they retained, indicating the condition of the premises at the end of the tenancy. This should be done in the presence of the other party, unless the other party has been given a reasonable opportunity to be present and has not attended the inspection.

IMPORTANT NOTES ABOUT THIS REPORT

1. This condition report is an important record of the condition of the premises when the tenancy begins.
2. At the end of the tenancy the premises will be inspected and the condition of the premises at that time will be compared to that stated in the original condition report.
3. It is important to complete the condition report accurately. It may be vital if there is a dispute, particularly about the return of the rental bond money and any damage to the premises.
4. If the tenant disagrees with the landlord’s condition report this must be confirmed in writing, preferably on the condition report, either by placing “N” (NO) in the appropriate column and by making an appropriate comment alongside that column.
5. The Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal has the power to hear disputes about the validity of a condition report.
