Insert after section 26 (2):

- (3) This section does not limit the operation of Part 3A (Proceedings involving persons with new identity).

[33] Part 3A

Insert after section 31:

Part 3A Proceedings involving persons with new identity

31A Definitions

In this Part:

court includes tribunal, Royal Commission or other commission of inquiry and the person or body holding or conducting a relevant proceeding.

protected identity of a protected person means:

- (a) in the context of relevant proceedings in which the protected person is or may be required to give evidence under the person's new identity—the person's previous identity, or
- (b) in the context of relevant proceedings in which the protected person is or may be required to give evidence under the person's previous identity—the person's new identity.

protected person means a person who, having been provided with a new identity under the witness protection program, retains that identity whether or not he or she remains a participant.

relevant proceeding means each of the following:

- (a) a proceeding before a court,
- (b) an inquest or inquiry under the Coroners Act 1980,
- (c) a hearing under the New South Wales Crime Commission Act 1985,
- (d) a hearing under the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996.

31B Requirement if person given new identity becomes a witness in relevant proceeding

- (1) If a protected person is or may be required to give evidence in a relevant proceeding before a court, whether under the person's new identity or previous identity, the person must notify the Commissioner of Police that the person is or may be required to give evidence in the proceeding.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) The Commissioner of Police must give the court concerned a certificate (a non-disclosure certificate) relating to the protected person.
- (3) If the court considers it appropriate in the relevant proceeding, the court may disclose to each party to the proceeding:
 - (a) that the court has been given a non-disclosure certificate relating to a person who may be required to give evidence in the proceeding, and
 - (b) what the certificate states.
- (4) The court may only disclose what the non-disclosure certificate states in the absence of any jury empanelled for the proceeding and the public. When disclosing the certificate's existence, the court must inform the parties of the effect of the certificate.

31C What non-disclosure certificate must state

- (1) The non-disclosure certificate must state:
 - (a) that the person is, or has been, included in the witness protection program, and
 - (b) that the person has been given a new identity under this Act, and
 - (c) that the person has not been convicted of any offence other than an offence stated in the certificate.
- (2) The certificate must not include any information that may enable the protected identity of the person to be revealed.

31D Effect of non-disclosure certificate

- (1) On the giving of a non-disclosure certificate in respect of a protected person:
 - (a) a question may not be asked in the relevant proceeding that may lead to the disclosure of the protected identity of the protected person or where the protected person lives, and

- (b) a witness in the relevant proceeding, including the protected person, cannot be required to answer a question, give any evidence, or provide any information, that may lead to the disclosure of the protected identity of the protected person or where the protected person lives, and
- (c) a person involved in the relevant proceeding must not in the relevant proceeding make a statement that discloses or could disclose the protected identity of the protected person or where the protected person lives.

(2) This section applies despite any other Act but subject to section 31E.

31E Court may grant leave to disclose relevant information

- (1) The court may, on application made to it, give leave to a party to ask questions of a witness, including the protected person, or make a statement that, if answered or made, may disclose the protected person's protected identity or where the protected person lives.
- (2) The only parties to whom such leave may be given are as follows:
 - (a) for a criminal proceeding—the prosecutor and each accused person to whom the relevant proceeding relates or the person's legal representative,
 - (b) for a civil proceeding—each party to the relevant proceeding or the party's legal representative,
 - (c) for another proceeding—each person who has been given leave to appear in the relevant proceeding or the person's legal representative,
 - (d) in any proceedings—a legal practitioner assisting the court.
- (3) The court may direct that the application be heard in the absence of any jury empanelled for the proceeding and the public.
- (4) The court must not give leave to a party under this section unless satisfied:
 - (a) there is some evidence that, if believed, would call into question the credibility of the protected person, and
 - (b) it is in the interests of justice for the party to be able to test the credibility of the protected person, and
 - (c) it would be impractical to test properly the credibility of the protected person without knowing the protected identity of the person.
- (5) If the court gives leave, a person may, in accordance with the leave:
 - (a) ask a question that may lead to the disclosure of the protected identity of the protected person or where the protected person lives, or

- (b) answer a question, give evidence, or provide information that may lead to the disclosure of the protected identity of the protected person or where the protected person lives, or
 - (c) make a statement that discloses or could disclose the protected identity of the protected person or where the protected person lives.
- (6) If the court gives leave, the court:
- (a) must hold the relevant part of the proceeding in the absence of the public, and
 - (b) must make an order for the suppression of publication of evidence given before it that it considers will ensure that the protected identity of the protected person and where the protected person lives is not disclosed, and
 - (c) may make any other order the court considers appropriate.
- (7) A person must not contravene an order made under subsection (6).
Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both.
- (8) This section does not limit the court's power to punish for contempt.

[34] Section 32 Offence—disclosures concerning participants

Insert “or in accordance with an order of the Supreme Court under section 34,” before “disclose information”.

[35] Section 33 Offence—disclosure by participants and others

Omit “participant or a former participant” from section 33 (1).

Insert instead “person who is or was a participant or a witness considered for inclusion in the witness protection program”.

[36] Section 33 (3)

Insert after section 33 (2):

- (3) A person is a witness considered for inclusion in the witness protection program if:
- (a) the person is a witness who is the subject of consideration under section 6 for inclusion in the witness protection program (even if the Commissioner subsequently decides not to include the witness), or
 - (b) the person is a witness included in the witness protection program temporarily under section 10 (even if the witness does not go on to be included in the witness protection program).

[37] Section 34 Certain persons not to be required to disclose information

Insert at the end of section 34 (1) (h):

, or

- (i) a person or body (or an employee of a person or body) providing services to or for a participant at the request of the Commissioner of Police.

[38] Section 34 (2)

Omit “the performance of his or her duties in accordance with this Act”.

Insert instead “the exercise of functions under this Act or the protection of witnesses included in the witness protection program”.

[39] Section 40 Immunity from legal proceedings for exercise of functions under Act

Omit “by this Act”.

Insert instead “by or under this Act (including an order of the Supreme Court under this Act)”.

[40] Schedule 1 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Omit “this Act” from clause 1 (1). Insert instead:

the following Acts:

this Act

Witness Protection Amendment Act 2002

[41] Schedule 1, clause 1 (2)

Omit “this Act”. Insert instead “the Act concerned”.

[42] Schedule 1
