Children (Interstate Transfer of Offenders) Regulation 2005

under the

Children (Interstate Transfer of Offenders) Act 1988

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Children (Interstate Transfer of Offenders) Act 1988.

ANTHONY KELLY, M.L.C.,
Minister for Juvenile Justice

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to remake, without any changes in substance, the provisions of the Children (Interstate Transfer of Offenders) Regulation 2000 which is repealed on 1 September 2005 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

This Regulation declares other States that have enacted legislation dealing with the interstate transfer of young offenders (State is defined in the Children (Interstate Transfer of Offenders) Act 1988 to include Territories). This enables the Minister to enter into agreements with those States for the transfer of young offenders between those States and New South Wales.

This Regulation is made under the Children (Interstate Transfer of Offenders) Act 1988, including sections 4 and 22 (the general regulation-making power).

This Regulation comprises or relates to matters arising under legislation that is substantially uniform or complementary with legislation of another State or Territory.
